

SUBURBAN FC

PLAYER'S CODE OF CONDUCT

VERSION 1.0

- I will be gracious no matter whether we win, lose or draw
- I will study hard and I will play hard but my school work must come before my soccer
- I will do my best to participate in every game and every practice. If something does stop me from taking part I will let my coach/manager know as soon as possible
- I will arrive at the facility for matches 30 mins before the kick-off/start time (or as instructed by my coach). I will use this time to be sure I am correctly dressed and to get prepared mentally and physically for the game
- I understand that in order to play in the games I must attend the practices
- I understand that soccer is a team sport and I am a part of my team
- I will ensure my uniform is complete, safe, and in good condition at all times, including shin pads and footwear
- I understand that it is nice to win but it is more important that I and the team always play to the best of our ability
- I will listen to my coaches' instructions
- I will always conduct myself in a dignified manner when I am with my team because I know I represent my team and Suburban FC
- I will remember that winning isn't everything - that having fun, improving skills, working hard, making friends and doing my best are more important
